Wedding Planning Contract

Agreement made between Sweet Serenity Wedding Event Planning and the bride Bea Alonzo and the groom John Lloyd Cruz.

CHANGE/CANCELLATIONS

Any changes/cancellation made to this contract must be made in writing and signed by all parties.

In the event the wedding couple is forced to change the date of the wedding, every effort will be made by Sweet Serenity Wedding Event Planning to transfer location reservations, sub-contractors and The Wedding Coordinator support to the new date. The wedding couple agrees that in the event of a date change any expenses including but not limited to deposits and fees that are non-refundable and non-transferable are the sole responsibility of the wedding couple. There may also be additional charges above and beyond those set in the original contract. The wedding couple further understands that last minute changes can impact the quality of the event and that The Wedding Coordinator is not responsible for these compromises in quality. If the bridal couple changes the date/location of the wedding and the wedding planner is unavailable to provide services, then the wedding planner is released from all contract obligations and shall in no way be held responsible or liable for non-performance. The couple also forfeits all costs for this agreement.

Sweet Serenity Wedding Event Planning will always do its best to find the top suppliers wherever the wedding location is, but we cannot be held responsible for any supplier/service provider's performance.

Cancellations by the bride & groom:

In the event of a cancellation, refunds are limited to unearned fees. Deposits are non refundable and any earned fee will have to be paid in full within 30 days of cancellation.

Cancellations by Sweet Serenity Wedding Event Planning :

Should planner Creations be unable to perform any specific tasks in the planning of a wedding, due to the wedding planner illness or hospitalization, unearned fees will be refunded and we will do our our best to find a substitute Wedding Planner.
